ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce Will J. Fields, of Carter City, as a candidate for Congress in the Ninth district of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce Archimedes Dickerson as a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk of Bath County, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

COUNT ZEPPELIN is camping passengers in his plane and performing from place to another in Germany, thus gaining first honors in practical aviation.

Congress adjourned for the summer Saturday night. The value of some of its legislation remains to be determined, but it made appropriations well over a billion dollars for the year.

The race is not over as yet, it may never make another political speech. That is too indefinite to be satisfying. But let us be known that if he is needed to save the P. P. he will not shrink from it.

The Ohio State Democratic convention nominated Judson Harmon for Governor to succeed himself, and endorsed him for President. The Democratic party might go for another and far worse for a candidate.

W. C. Campbell Cantrell did to Connie Thomas in the 7th district Democratic Congressional primary Saturday was a plenty and then some. Cantrell carried every county in the district except Fayette, and won the decisive majority, defeating Thomas about 2,500. Many of his opponents will have a most nauseating difficult time in the next few months. There is much talk of a Republican candidate to oppose Cantrell, with a bid for a Democratic bolt.

We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Mamma, darling you have left us. Left us, yes, forever more; How we bear the pain and sorrow God alone does keep.

Heaven now has our treasure; But the sunbeams always linger. Where our dear mamma sleeps.

Mamma, don't go but for a short time; But her memory fades; Sweetest thoughts shall always linger.

Around the grave where she is laid.

We shall miss her kind and willing hands.

Her love and earnest care; Our home is back without her; We miss her everywhere.

One by one earth's ties are broken.

As we see our loved ones decay, And the hopes so fondly cherished Brighten but to pass away.

One by one our hopes grow brighter

As we know across the river. For we know across the river. Wait our loved ones gone before.

A FRIEND.

1859, near Olympian Springs, Bath county, Ky. Being of a family of four girls it fell to the lot of the father to support the family.

How well my mother performed her part can be attested to by the fact that she died at the age of 19, a pure and perfect human being.

At the time of her death she was a widow, but the family was still in the great principles of Methodism, and tried to in an unpretentious way to live up to them.

On February 15, 1881, she was united in marriage to Daniel L. Gooden; he and three of the four children born of this union were still living.

Mr. and Mrs. Gooden had five children, all of whom are still living.

On June 22, 1881, she died in the home of her husband.
